

Drug-Free Communities: La Voz is a current Drug Free Communities funded coalition. The Drug-Free Communities Support Program (DFC) is a Federal grant program that provides funding to community-based coalitions that organize to prevent youth substance use. Since the passage of the DFC Act in 1997, the DFC Program has funded more than 2,000 coalitions and currently mobilizes nearly 9,000 community volunteers across the country. Over the life of the DFC Program, youth living in DFC communities have experienced reductions in alcohol, tobacco, and marijuana use.

Partnerships for Success: The purpose of the Partnerships for Success (PFS) grant program is to prevent the onset and reduce the progression of substance abuse and its related problems while strengthening prevention capacity and infrastructure at the community level. The program is intended to address one of the nation's top substance abuse prevention priorities - underage drinking among persons aged 9 to 20. LA Voz de la Comunidad's PFS activities link community partners with prevention best practices, advocate for effective policies, and conduct media campaigns focused on Latino communities in a project area comprised of 18 zip codes.
